The speech was initiated with the history of NCC in India, formed with the National Cadet Corps Act of 1948. It was raised on 15 July 1948, the National Cadet Corps can be considered as a successor of the University Officers Training Corps (UOTC) which was established by the British in 1942. During World War II, this UOTC never came up to the expectations set by the British. Thus led to the idea of better schemes, which could train more young men in a better way, even during peace times. A committee was formulated which was headed by Pandit H.N. Kunzru who recommended cadet organization to be established in schools and colleges at a national level. The National Cadet Corps Act was accepted by the Governor General and on 15 July 1948 and thus the National Cadet Corps came into existence.

He added on that during the 1965 and 1971 wars with Pakistan, NCC cadets were the second line of defenceorganising camps to assist the ordinance factories, supplying arms and ammunition to the front, and used as patrol parties to capture the enemy paratroopers. He high lighted that NCC cadets worked hand in hand with the Civil Defence authorities and actively took part in rescue work and traffic control. After the 1965 and 1971 Indo-Pak wars the NCC was revised. Rather than just being the second line of defence, NCC laid a greater stress on developing qualities of leadership and Officer-like qualities. The military training which the NCC cadets received was reduced and greater importance was given to other areas like social service, youth-management, developing secular outlook, spirit of adventure and sportsmanship, encouraging selfless service among the youth to make them useful citizens.

His speech enlightened the cadets with the Motto of NCC, Unity and Discipline (Ekta aur Anushasan), spotlighting four Cardinal Principles of Discipline among the cadets

- Obey with a smile
- Be Punctual
- Work hard and without fuss
- Make no excuses and tell no lies.

NATIONAL CADET CORPS

He kept on the spirit of the cadets as, we the National Cadet Corps, should take the pledge that we shall always uphold the unity of India, resolve to be disciplined and responsible citizens of our Nation.

He gave information about the different NCC Trainings that the cadets will be given as like Drill, shooting, Physical fitness, map reading, First aid, Gliding/Flying, boat pulling, sailing and camp training covering basic of military training in Army, Navy and Air Force. He enunciated that, this training is mostly carried out in schools and colleges for the cadets.

He encouraged the cadets that even adventure activities have been incorporated in NCC training with the aim of inculcating and strengthen leadership traits amongst the cadets. Activities such as, Mountaineering, Rock Climbing, Trekking, Sailing Expedition, White Water Rafting, Scuba Diving, River Crossing and Parasailing are part of this adventure training.

The second highlight of his speech was about SSB (Services Selection Board), is Personality and Intelligence Assessment Test to analyse the potential and compatibility of candidates for commissioning into the Armed Forces of India as officers. He stated that in order to be fair, the system has adopted three different and independent techniques, each technique grades and evaluates the qualities which are essential for defence services by allowing least time and under stressful condition, which is the practical requirement for an officer during emergencies like wars.
